Significant Events:

- Ofc. Gaul was dispatched to a verbal dispute which resulted in a drug arrest when it was discovered that one of the parties was in possession of marijuana. The subject was committed to the Howard Young Correctional Institution regarding an unrelated, outstanding court capias.
- Off. Williams investigated a harassment/criminal mischief, and was able to make an arrest based on the victim's account of the incident and scene evidence. A condition of bail included no contact with the alleged victim or their residence. The defendant was also wanted on an unrelated court capias and released on unsecured bail.
- Off. Williams apprehended and arrested a disorderly subject who had threatened numerous residents during a verbal altercation. This individual was committed to the HYCI in lieu of bail, and ordered to have no contact with the alleged victims.
- Chief Henderson conducted a theft of firearm investigation in which a felony arrest was made. The firearm, however, has not been recovered at this time as the defendant was uncooperative.
